

A community interactive evening on
ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE
&
HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Tuesday, March 11
7:00pm – 8:30pm

Church of St. Francis of Assisi
San Damiano Hall
135 West 31st Street
New York, NY

Powerful testimony
from around the world
Guyana, Colombia, El Salvador,
Peru, South Africa, Uganda,
Ireland, and Canada

Breakout roundtable discussions with the activists

What makes people vulnerable to human trafficking?
What is the role of US/Canada foreign and economic policy?
How does unsustainable extractive activity impact communities?
How are human rights violations & environmental abuses related?

Join us to reflect on these questions with our visiting activists. Learn what faith-based groups are doing in Washington, DC and at the UN in New York to advocate for change. Explore how you can contribute to addressing the structural injustices that are among the root causes of human trafficking and other forms of modern day slavery.

RSVP to:
events@franciscanaction.org
or (212)736-8500 ext. 321

Sponsors Franciscans International & Franciscan Action Network • Sisters of Mercy, Mercy International Association • Congregation of Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd • Society of Catholic Medical Missionaries • Dominican Leadership Conference • Mining Working Group at the UN • Oxfam America • Church of St. Francis of Assisi

