ANTHONY GITTINS CSSP is Professor of Mission and Culture at Catholic Theological Union (Chicago, Illinois USA). A missionary and educator, he is the author of:

- 🕒 Called to Be Sent: Co-Missioned as Disciples Today
- 🕒 Where There's Hope There's Life: Women's Stories of Homelessness and Survival
- 🕒 Come, Follow Me: The Commandments of Jesus
- 🕒 A Presence that Disturbs: The Call to Radical Discipleship
- 🕒 Ministry at the Margins: Strategy and Spirituality for Mission
- 🕒 Bread For The Journey: The Mission of Transformation and the Transformation of Mission

THE RETREAT will be an extended reflection on Eucharistic themes:
Real Presence, Thanksgiving, Sacrifice, Famine, Meal

Each day will be an extended liturgy. In the morning (Introductory Rites) there will be a presentation and time for reading and reflection. Late morning (Liturgy of the Word) includes a reflection on the Readings. In the afternoon (Liturgy of the Eucharist) there will be further input, reading and reflection. Finally (Thanksgiving), we will reflect on the day through faith sharing.
