

LITANY OF MERCY

A reader or one section of the group reads the main text, the rest respond with the bold type.

Creator God – Maker and Source of Mercy – all praise to You.

Jesus – exemplar and champion of Mercy – all praise to You.

Spirit – artist and animator of Mercy – all praise to You.

Out of the profound silence of Your Presence we murmur the words of Mercy:

- + Rahamim: the womb love – inscribe it on our hearts.
- + Hesed: the loving kindness – inscribe it on our hearts.
- + Eleos: the healing oil – inscribe it on our hearts.
- + the words of tenderness and empathy – inscribe them on our hearts.
- + the words of tolerance and forgiveness – inscribe them on our hearts.
- + the words of justice and faithfulness – inscribe them on our hearts.

In the encounters of the life of Jesus we find our Mercy meaning:

- + the woman with the alabaster jar – may we meet as Jesus met.
- + the rich young man – may we meet as Jesus met.
- + the little girl brought to life – may we meet as Jesus met.
- + the three at Bethany – may we meet as Jesus met.
- + the lepers, the outcasts, the lost – may we meet as Jesus met.

In the imagination of Jesus we find our Mercy inspiration:

- + the one sheep who went missing – may we do as Jesus told it.
- + the son who was welcomed home – may we do as Jesus told it.
- + the vineyard workers, late and early – may we do as Jesus told it.
- + the treasure buried in the field – may we do as Jesus told it.
- + the only one who stopped to help – may we do as Jesus told it.

In the life of our forebears we recognise Mercy:

- + for Mary of Nazareth and Calvary – we thank You.
- + for Catherine McAuley, woman of Dublin – we thank You.
- + for our founders and pioneers, the near and the far – we thank You.
- + for our holy ones and wisdom figures – we thank You.
- + for the heroic and the humble – we thank You.

With all Your creation we share our life in Mercy:

- + the feather and the fur – we respect and cherish.
- + the waterway and the breeze – we respect and cherish.
- + the rock and the leaf – we respect and cherish.
- + the fish and the star – we respect and cherish.
- + the flame and the stalk – we respect and cherish.

LITANY OF MERCY

The colour of mercy – we celebrate.
the shape of mercy – we celebrate.
the mystery of mercy – we celebrate.
the arenas of mercy – we celebrate.

The unfinished chapters – we pledge mercy.
the unmet need – we pledge mercy.
the violence, the horror – we pledge mercy.
the urgent immensities – we pledge mercy.
the cries, the silences, the aches and injuries – we pledge mercy.

In Your name, with Your help, by Your hand.
In the large days and ordinary ways,
alone and together, we are people for Mercy.

Mercy calls us – Mercy calls us.

Mercy guides us – Mercy guides us.

Mercy sustains us – Mercy sustains us.

Amen.

Mary Wickham rsm
(ISMAPNG)

To read more of Sr Mary's poetry visit:
marywickhamrsm.org.au

To learn about the Sisters of Mercy visit:
www.mercyworld.org

