Catherine McAuley has taught us that "Mercy is the principal path marked out by Jesus Christ for those desirous of following Him..." <sup>[1]</sup> In the Way of Mercy, in the many and diverse places where we are called to serve, we stop at need and attend there to the cries we hear from the Poor and from the Earth, for this is "the business of our lives". The Season of Lent reminds us to undertake the journey in a spirit of mercy and justice. In the Way of the pilgrim, we set out on this path and are shaped by what we encounter.
