for Secondary School Students

held at:
Mercy International Centre
64a Lower Baggot Street, Dublin, Ireland

Tuesday 18th July – Friday 21st July 2017

Programme Information

Students from Mercy secondary schools will travel to Mercy International Association in Dublin, Ireland. These Mercy pilgrims will undertake their journey in the light of the story of Catherine McAuley, foundress of the Sisters of Mercy. Students who participate in this pilgrimage will emerge with a deeper appreciation of our Mercy tradition – past, present and future.

Past

As they explore Mercy International Centre, pilgrims will hear the story of Catherine McAuley anew in the House she founded. They will learn about her spirituality and grow in understanding of the rich heritage of the Sisters of Mercy.

Present

Pilgrims will gain a profound sense of the Mercy spirit alive today. They will be challenged by engaging speakers and will encounter the Mercy charism in the diversity of their fellow delegates.

Future

As they reflect on their experiences in Dublin, pilgrims will come to know themselves as Mercy leaders. They will return home emboldened to strive for justice and Mercy, with the courage that Catherine demonstrated.
