

Mercy Pilgrimage

A programme focusing on the education tradition within Mercy

8th - 12th January 2018

(and 15th - 19th January 2018 if sufficient numbers)

This five day programme is open to all in the Mercy family. The timing is placed in the Southern Hemisphere summer break to allow staff from Mercy Schools to attend. Based in Catherine McAuley's house and city, the programme will provide an opportunity for all who want to deepen their connection to the Mercy story: past, present and future.

Input will include:

- Catherine's Story, Life and Ministry
- Early Women of Mercy - co creators of the work of Mercy
 - Catherine's Approach to Leadership
- Living Mercy Today: Challenges, Values & Directions
 - Mercy in a Global Context
 - Mercy Leadership

The Programme begins at 10.00am on Monday 8th January 2018 and concludes after lunch on Friday 12th January at 2.00pm.

Cost: €580 (Residential); €380 (Non-residential)

Aware that it is the middle of winter in Ireland at the time, the majority of the input will be planned for the mornings and evenings so that participants have a little free-time in the afternoons to explore Catherine's Dublin in the daylight hours.

Should you wish to stay longer, bed and breakfast accommodation is available at €60 per night. Register by contacting Madeleine at bookings@mercyinternational.ie or +353 1 661 8061 For further information contact Anna Nicholls rsm at heritage@mercyinternational.ie

Mercy International Centre, 64a Lower Baggot Street, Dublin 2. www.mercyworld.org

