

11 NOVEMBER REMEMBRANCE DAY

On the 11th November 2017, Mass will be held at Mercy International Centre as we recall the anniversary of the death of Catherine McAuley and remember all those who have walked the path of Mercy.

All are invited to submit the names of those who have died in the past year so that they can be remembered in a special way at this Mass. (Click on this link for the submission form). At the end of the Mass the names will be placed at the grave of Catherine. A live webcam will be available between 9am and 5pm (Dublin time) for anyone to make a virtual visit to the grave to pray for those who have died. Click here to view the live feed.

Members of our Mercyworld who are in Dublin on the 11th November are warmly invited to join the staff at Mercy International Centre, at 10am for Mass. If you are able to come please let Madeleine know on (01) 661 8061 or at receptionist@mercyinternational.ie

In her last moments, Catherine McAuley directed that the Sisters would have a good cup of tea together in the community room, after she had gone, so it is fitting that Mass will be followed by a "Good Cup of Tea" event. More information about such events is available at this link.
