

Sheila Curran RSM

Congregation of the Sisters of Mercy,

Northern Province, Ireland

Justice Coordinator for Conference of Religious of Ireland (CORI) and (Irish Missionary Union) IMU

Dublin, Ireland

Sheila Curran is a Mercy Sister from Letterkenny, Co. Donegal. She completed a Doctor of Ministry degree in Catholic Theological Union, Chicago in May 2014. She also holds a Masters in Biblical Ministry and a Masters in Equality Studies.

Her doctoral research focused on the implications of engaging Peruvian women's experience in intercultural theological education. Her ministry and research has been shaped by her experience of living and working in Peru, particularly her involvement with the Institute Bartolome de Las Casas, a non-governmental social justice and human rights organization founded by the liberation theologian Gustavo Gutiérrez. Prior to her ministry in Peru, she was Director of the Mercy Family Centre and the Donor Youth Project in South Brown St., Dublin 8.

CURRICULUM VITAE 2016

MERCY INTERNATIONAL REFLECTION PROCESS

Flaming the Fire of Mercy: Creation Waiting in Eager Longing